11 The rules regarding the disposal of the carcasses of animals are all right

12 As regards those relating to the disposal of corpses, I do not see under what authority rules / any requiring registration etc of private burial or burning grounds are proposed to be made Sec 92 (2) prohibits the forming of any such grounds after the Regn except with the permission of the M' C' As for those already existing Subsec (3) gives a power to close them under conditions mentioned therein - There is no provision in this Sec^n for registering burial grounds or for enforcing information such as is mentioned in rule 4 now proposed

13 The remaining rules call for no remarks
